

FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION

No. 49

CONTAINING

Forty-first Annual Report of the Board of Trustees. Proceedings of the Forty-first Annual Meeting, and the List of Members.

PHILADELPHIA, 1913

ORGANIZED in 1871 and enlarged in 1888 and again in 1906 to extend the field of its operations to the entire city, as well as to Fairmount Park, the Fairmount Park Art Association is believed to represent the oldest existing organization having for its aim the adornment and development along artistic lines of the parks and public places of American cities.

During the forty years of its existence the Association has either presented outright or assisted in promoting the presentation to the city of most of the works in Fairmount Park, and such works in the city itself as the fine "Lion and Serpent," by Barye, in Rittenhouse Square, and Elwell's group of "Dickens and Little Nell" in Clarence H. Clark Park, West Philadelphia.

Among the works which have been erected in Fairmount Park are the equestrian statues of General Grant, by French, and of General Meade, by Calder, Dallin's "Medicine Man," Fremiet's "Jeanne d'Arc," Boyle's spirited group of the "Indian Mother Defending her Children," the Garfield monument by St. Gaudens, Wolff's "Wounded Lioness," which is placed at the entrance to the Zoological Gardens, Cain's "Lioness Bringing a Wild Boar to her Cubs," Kemeys' "Hudson's Bay Wolves," Remington's "Cow-boy," the Grand Fountain near the Dauphin Street entrance, the statues of "Night," "Il Penseroso" and "Diana Borghese" in Horticultural Hall, besides many fountains and minor works, including such reproductions as the "Silenus and Infant Bacchus" and the "Wrestlers." The casual visitor is apt to regard these works as matters of course and thinks of them as part of the indispensable furniture of parks in general, forgetting that such things do not come of themselves and form no part of the provision for public enjoyment with which official oversight is concerned.

Such an idea as the association of artistic ideals with a sense of public duty and responsibility has hardly been recognized thus far in America, and whatever has been accomplished in this direction has depended almost entirely upon private initiative.

It is something to remember that the movement for civic betterment, for the systematic promotion of worthy memorials and for the recognition of beauty in public places as something worth working for, which is perhaps the most hopeful sign of the present time, had its origin in Philadelphia when the Fairmount Park Art Association was organized forty years ago.

The aims of the Association are, however, by no means limited to the erection of personal memorials, or even works of any detached and specific class. The tendency of its officers and members is to interpret its purpose in terms of the most liberal and inclusive effort for the expression of high civic ideals in forms whose beauty and dignity are synonyms for Art.

24. "STONE AGE IN AMERICA".....Indian Group, Bronze

BY JOHN J. BOYLE

Mr. Boyle's spirited group represents an Indian mother defending her children from an attack of wild beasts. A bear's cub, which she has killed with her stone hatchet, lies at her feet, and with her baby clasped to her breast she awaits the attack of the savage mother. The group is among the most masterly works which have been added to the works in the Park, and Mr. Boyle is undoubtedly the first sculptor who has adequately presented the Indians' case in American art. It was cast by Barbedienne, of Paris, and placed in West Park, near the Children's Play Ground, in 1888.

36. SUN-DIAL and MARBLE PEDESTAL. Presented to the City of Philadelphia through this Association, by a member who desires the gift to remain anonymous, and erected in the center of the Sunken Garden in front of Horticultural Hall, in the West Park, in May, 1905.

The dial is of bronze, accuracy calculated for the exact spot in which it is placed, and shows the variations for each month of the year and the time at 12 o'clock in twelve principal cities of the world.

The pedestal is the work of Alexander Stirling Calder, and the design includes the twelve signs of the zodiac, and four supporting female figures, emblematic of the four seasons.

37. JAPANESE TEMPLE-GATE. Presented to the City of Philadelphia, through this Association, by Messrs. John H. Converse and Samuel M. Vauclain, and erected in the ravine between Memorial and Horticultural Halls in the West Park, near the Lotus-Pond, in December, 1905.

This extremely interesting specimen of the best Japanese work of three hundred years ago, formed part of the official Japanese exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis in 1904, and was purchased, with its contents, by Messrs. Converse and Vauclain as a gift to the city. The contents of the building, as exhibited at St. Louis, include a superb pair of the usual Temple guardians, Brahma and Indra, and many specimens of Japanese art in wood, metal and fabrics. As the Park Commission is unable at the present time to provide a custodian for the Temple-Gate, these objects have been deposited with the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art to be exhibited among its collections at Memorial Hall.

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION

JANUARY 16, 1913.

To the Members of the Fairmount-Park Art Association:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: Your Board of Trustees presents this, the Forty-first Annual Report, as follows:

MONUMENTAL MEMORIAL.

The Monumental Memorial to Pennsylvania's military and naval officers and men distinguished for gallantry in the Civil War, 1861-1865, erected under bequest of Richard Smith, of Philadelphia, by his executors and trustees, John B. Gest, Esq., and the Fidelity Trust Company, the art work under the auspices of the Fairmount Park Art Association, was finally completed last year, the last piece of sculpture, the equestrian statue of General McClellan, by Edward C. Potter, having been placed in position and formally approved by the Committee, June 4, 1912.

The memorial was designed by Mr. James H. Windrim and the completed work, which represents an expenditure of $500,000, and has occupied the attention of your Board since 1897, is perhaps the most important of all the monuments that have been erected in this country to the memory of the men who fought in the Civil War.

The statuary in bronze comprises the following:

Colossal equestrian statue of Major-General Hancock, by J. Q. A. Ward.

Colossal equestrian statue of Major-General McClellan,
by Edward C. Potter.

Fairmount Park Art Association.

Colossal figure of Major-General Meade, by Daniel Chester French.

Colossal figure of Major-General Reynolds, by Charles Grafly.

Eight colossal busts as follows:

Admiral Porter, by Charles Grafly.

Major-General Hartranft, by A. Stirling Calder.

Admiral Dahlgren, by George E. Bissel.

James H. Windrim, Esq., by Samuel Murray.

Major-General S. W. Crawford, by Bessie O. Potter.

Governor Curtin, by M. Ezekiel.

General James A. Beaver, by Katherine M. Cohen.

John B. Gest, Esq., by Charles Grafly.

Two Eagles and Globes, by J. Massey Rhind.

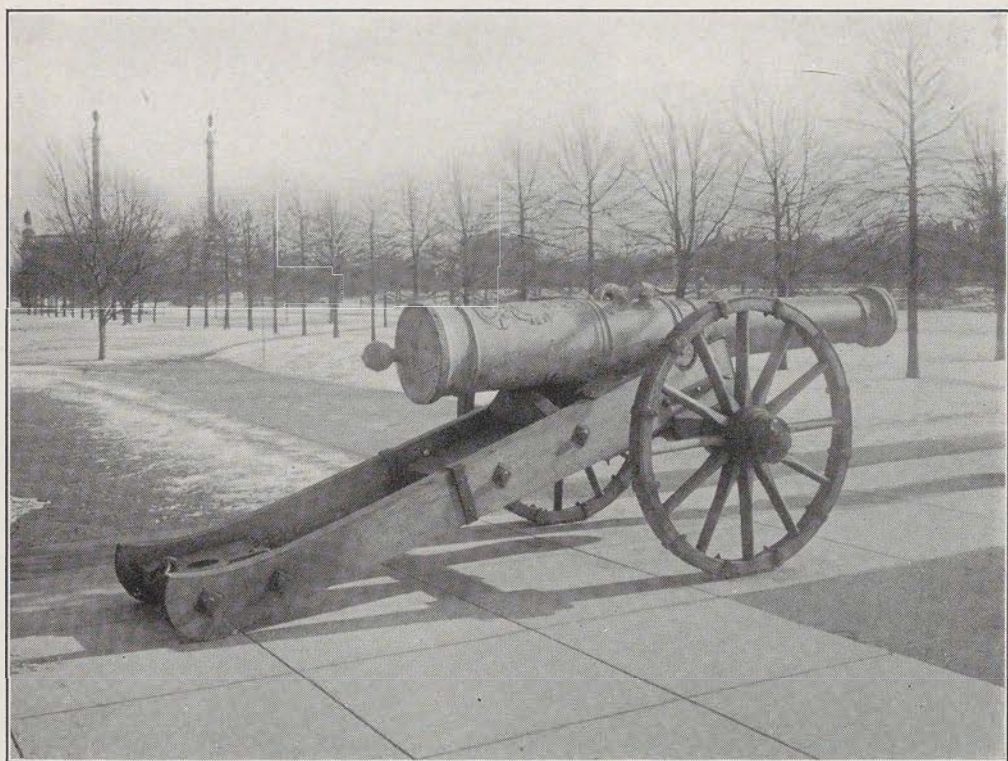

That its completion was not signalized by dedication ceremonies commensurate in impressiveness with the dignity of the memorial and the lessons which it so fittingly commemorates was a matter of regret to your Board, but one that was entirely beyond its power to control.

SPANISH CANNON.

The old and very ornamental Spanish cannons which were presented to the city by the Association in 1899 and placed on temporary mountings in front of the Columbus Monument on Belmont Avenue, have been remounted on appropriate carriages and removed, with the approval of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, to the terrace in front of Memorial Hall where they are much more effectively installed.

PROTECTION OF CARPENTERS' HALL.

The property on Orianna Street, the acquisition of which, for the protection of Carpenters' Hall, was noted in the last report, has been enclosed by a suitable iron fence and the wall at the back as well as that at the southern end, neatly and substantially rebuilt. The prosecution of this improvement developed the rather surprising fact that Orianna Street (formerly Hudson Street), although one of the oldest streets of the city, has never been formally accepted by the municipality. The completion of our work in the street itself has therefore been delayed until this matter of ownership and the consequent responsibility for the future care of the street can be adjusted. This improvement has been carried out in the name, and at the expense, of the City Branch.

THE PARKWAY.

In spite of the policy of the most rigid economy which the city government has felt compelled to adopt in connection with all improvements of this character, substantial progress has been made in the acquisition of the properties to be taken for the Fairmount Parkway, and your Board hopes to be able to record in its next report the opening of at least that portion of this great improvement which will extend from Logan Square to Fairmount, on lines recommended by this Association as the result of the exhaustive study of the subject which was made by it in 1907, and formally accepted and approved by the City government September 20, 1909.

It is a source of much satisfaction to your Board to report that this magnificent improvement, the most important that has ever been undertaken by the municipality, is not only being pushed forward as rapidly as the resources at the disposal of the present administration will permit, but that it forms only one feature of a comprehensive plan for the development of the city and its surroundings within a radius of some thirty miles, that has reference to the preservation of natural beauty and the extension of the city's facilities for healthful recreation, as well as to the fullest development of its industrial and commercial activities. The part which this Association has played in promoting and directing such plans as these, and in such efforts for their realization as those which characterize current discussion of the city's needs in official as well as unofficial circles has always been that of a pioneer and a leader, and the amount of good that it has accomplished in this way and the promise which it offers of future usefulness, are such as to justify high claims to recognition by the present and a confident appeal for increased support.

ERICSSON MEMORIAL.

In common with several other projected monuments whose erection would seem to form very properly a part of the embellishment of the Parkway, the Ericsson Memorial awaits the settlement of the rather perplexing question of a suitable site. As noted in the last report it is hoped that the memorial may be treated as a feature of some architectural scheme rather than as a detached statue and as the ultimate development of the Parkway is likely to offer opportunities for such a treatment of the subject there would seem to be good reasons for deferring the selection of a site until the Parkway project itself is further advanced.

ROBERT MORRIS MEMORIAL.

Encouraging progress along the lines described in the last report has been made with the memorial to Robert Morris, such delay as the movement has experienced being mainly owing to the difficulty of securing a site. As in the case of the Ericsson, the first choice of many of those most interested, especially the members of the State Commission with whom the Association is cooperating, was for a location on the Parkway. When the conclusion was reluctantly reached that the project could not afford to be deferred long enough to render such a site available, the attention of the joint committee to which the matter was referred, has been actively engaged in efforts to select a suitable site elsewhere. Your Board is represented by two of its members on this joint committee, one of whom is also Secretary of the Committee of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association, the third member of the group of agencies which are working together in this movement.

MEMBERSHIP.

Your Board has learned by repeated experiment that formal appeals for new members produce little or no result. It begs to remind its existing membership, however, that the Association is rendering important service to the community, the need of which is constantly increasing, and the extent of which is limited only by its resources. Your Board hopes, therefore, that members will lose no opportunity to make the work of the Association better known and to do what lies in their power to increase its membership and to add to its resources.

During the year just closed the Association has lost nineteen individual members by death; and during the same period there were two new enrolments, in detail as follows:

Total.....	2

ELECTION.

It is your duty to select six trustees to serve for three years, and until their successors shall be chosen, in place of those whose term has expired.

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE W. MILLER,
Secretary.

E. T. STOTESBURY,
President.

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE

FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION

The Forty-first Annual Meeting of the Fairmount Park Art Association was held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, on Thursday, January 16, 1913, at twelve o'clock noon. Forty members were present.

In the absence of the President, Vice-President Dana occupied the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting, copies of which had been sent to all members, were, on motion, approved, and the reading dispersed with.

The Forty-first Annual Report of the Board of Trustees was presented and read. On motion, duly seconded, the report was accepted and referred to the incoming Board, and the Secretary was instructed to have the usual number of copies printed and distributed.

An abstract of the Treasurer's Report which is printed in full in this report, was also presented and read.

The election of six trustees for the ensuing term of three years and until their successors shall be chosen, being next in order, the following ticket was duly nominated and seconded. There being no further nominations the Secretary was, on motion, instructed to cast a single ballot for the ticket as nominated. This was done and the gentlemen were declared elected.

For the term ending in 1915:

C. L. BORIE, JR.,
ANDREW WRIGHT CRAWFORD,
HENRY K. FOX,
ALBERT KELSEY,
EDWARD T. STOTESBURY,
ROLAND L. TAYLOR,

Fairmount Park Art Association.

Miss Mary Blakiston called attention to a movement for the decoration of recreation centers, school-houses, etc., by art students, in which she was interested and which the Board of Trustees of the Association had undertaken to assist. The Secretary explained the work of this kind that had been done in Chicago, the only expense attending it being the cost of materials. He cordially commended the movement and reported that the Trustees of the Fairmount Park Art Association had authorized an initial expenditure of one hundred dollars ($100) to encourage similar efforts in Philadelphia.

The meeting was then adjourned.

LESLIE W. MILLER, Secretary.

Following the business meeting, the members were entertained at lunch in the dining room of the hotel. Short addresses congratulating the members on the work accomplished by the Association and outlining its opportunities for future usefulness were made by Mr. Joseph A. Steinmetz, chairman of the committee in charge of the meeting, by Dr. James MacAlister and by the Secretary.

CITY BRANCH

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP (Annually).....	ONE DOLLAR
ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP.....	FIVE DOLLARS
LIFE MEMBERSHIP (AND CERTIFICATE).....	FIFTY DOLLARS
*PERPETUAL MEMBERSHIP.....	FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Annual members of two or more years may change to Life Membership upon payment of Forty Dollars.

As the Association welcomes gifts and bequests of securities, money and real estate, it is hoped that all who desire to perpetuate the work of the Association will, in disposing of their property, include the Fairmount Park Art Association among their beneficiaries.

Under the laws of Pennsylvania, which provide that the courts are authorized to enter a decree at any time extending and defining the amount of property which the Association shall be permitted to hold, it is evident that the restriction in the original charter limiting the amount of real estate which it may legally hold is practically removed.

Perpetual memberships are especially valued as legacies.

* May be in one's own name or "In Memoriam."

Citizens desiring to contribute to the adornment of the Park or City are invited to do so through the agency of this Association, in order that such undertakings may not only benefit by its experience and oversight, but also that proper and permanent record of them may be made in its published Reports.
