No. 51

CONTAINING

Forty-third Annual Report of the Board of Trustees. Proceedings of the Forty-third Annual Meeting, and the List of Members.

PHILADELPHIA, 1915

ORGANIZED in 1871 and enlarged in 1888 and again in 1906 to extend the field of its operations to the entire city, as well as to Fairmount Park, the Fairmount Park Art Association is believed to represent the oldest existing organization having for its aim the adornment and development along artistic lines of the parks and public places of American cities.

During the forty years of its existence the Association has either presented outright or assisted in promoting the presentation to the city of most of the works in Fairmount Park, and such works in the city itself as the fine "Lion and Serpent," by Barye, in Rittenhouse Square, and Elwell's group of "Dickens and Little Nell" in Clarence H. Clark Park, West Philadelphia.

Among the works which have been erected in Fairmount Park are the equestrian statues of General Grant, by French, and of General Meade, by Calder, Dallin's "Medicine Man," Fremiet's "Jeanne d'Arc," Boyle's spirited group of the "Indian Mother Defending her Children," the Garfield monument by St. Gaudens, Wolff's "Wounded Lioness," which is placed at the entrance to the Zoological Gardens, Cain's "Lioness Bringing a Wild Boar to her Cubs," Kemeys' "Hudson Bay Wolves," Remington's "Cow-boy," the Grand Fountain near the Dauphin Street entrance, the statues of "Night," "Il Penseroso" and "Diana Borghese" in Horticultural Hall, besides many fountains and minor works, including such reproductions as the "Silenus and Infant Bacchus" and the "Wrestlers." The casual visitor is apt to regard these works as matters of course and thinks of them as part of the indispensable furniture of parks in general, forgetting that such things do not come of themselves and form no part of the provision for public enjoyment with which official oversight is concerned.

Such an idea as the association of artistic ideals with a sense of public duty and responsibility has hardly been recognized thus far in America, and whatever has been accomplished in this direction has depended almost entirely upon private initiative.

It is something to remember that the movement for civic betterment, for the systematic promotion of worthy memorials and for the recognition of beauty in public places as something worth working for, which is perhaps the most hopeful sign of the present time, had its origin in Philadelphia when the Fairmount Park Art Association was organized forty years ago.

The aims of the Association are, however, by no means limited to the erection of personal memorials, or even works of any detached and specific class. The tendency of its officers and members is to interpret its purpose in terms of the most liberal and inclusive effort for the expression of high civic ideals in forms whose beauty and dignity are synonyms for Art.

The group is among the most masterly works which have been added to the works in the Park, and Mr. Boyle is undoubtedly the first sculptor who has adequately presented the Indians' case in American art. The dial is of bronze, accurately calculated for the exact spot in which it is placed, and shows the variations for each month of the year and the time at 12 o'clock in twelve principal cities of the world.

The pedestal is the work of Alexander Stirling Calder, and the design includes the twelve signs of the zodiac, and four supporting female figures, emblematic of the four seasons.

This extremely interesting specimen of the best Japanese work of three hundred years ago, formed part of the official Japanese exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis in 1904, and was purchased, with its contents, by Messrs. Converse and Vauclain as a gift to the city. The contents of the building, as exhibited at St. Louis, include a superb pair of the usual Temple guardians, Brahma and Indra, and many specimens of Japanese art in wood, metal and fabrics. As the Park Commission is unable at the present time to provide a custodian for the Temple-Gate, these objects have been deposited with the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art to be exhibited among its collections at Memorial Hall.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION

JANUARY 21, 1915.

To the Members of the Fairmount Park Art Association:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: Your Board of Trustees presents this, the Forty-third Annual Report, as follows:

ELLEN PHILLIPS SAMUEL MEMORIAL.

By the terms of the will of Ellen Phillips Samuel, deceased, her husband, J. Bunford Samuel, Esq., is entitled to the entire net income of her residuary estate during his lifetime and no funds have therefore yet been received from the estate by the Association. Mr. Samuel, however, is desirous of seeing the general plan for the execution of his wife's bequest developed as soon as possible and he has very generously offered to place the greater part of his income from the estate for the year 1915 at the disposal of the Association to be applied toward the cost of erecting the first of the twenty historical statues, which his wife contemplated should be ultimately placed on the East River Drive in Fairmount Park between the boat-houses and Girard Avenue Bridge.

A special Committee of the Trustees has therefore been appointed to secure a preliminary design for the whole memorial with a view to beginning the work of construction at an early date.

ROBERT MORRIS MEMORIAL.

Under an act of Assembly, approved June 14, 1911, the Governor of Pennsylvania was authorized to appoint a Commission to erect a monument to Robert Morris, in commemoration of his services to the United States during the Revolutionary War, with funds appropriated for the purpose. The Commission, when duly appointed, adopted a suggestion to associate with itself the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association, which had previously raised by subscription a fund for the same object, and the Fairmount Park Art Association. The two associations thereupon each appointed two delegates, who with the five members of the Commission, united to form a General Committee of nine members on the Robert Morris Memorial to take charge of the work.

Fairmount Park Art Association.

On March 1, 1914, the General Committee, by authority of the Commission, issued a "Programme for the Preliminary Competition" for a design for a portrait statue of Robert Morris in bronze, to be erected in Philadelphia at a total cost not exceeding $28,000.

The programme, which was widely distributed among American sculptors, provided that designs in the form of drawings should be sent to the General Committee at the School of Industrial Art in Philadelphia, between May 1 and May 31, 1914, in whose custody they were to remain until passed upon by a Jury of Award, composed of the five members of the State Commission and Messrs. Leslie W. Miller, Roland L. Taylor, L. M. McFadden, C. J. Cohen and Edward E. Shields. The programme further provided that the Jury of Award should examine the designs submitted and report on the same in writing to the Commission within thirty days after June 1, 1914, selecting four competitors to be invited to enter a second competition, in which each competitor should receive the sum of $500 on the submission of a model representing his further study of the subject.

The Jury of Award met in accordance with the programme on June 17, 1914, but, as less than a majority of the members was present, no action was taken. No further meeting of the Jury of Award was called, but on December 9, 1914, the Chairman and Secretary of the Commission appeared with Mr. L. M. McFadden, a representative of the Bankers' Association on the Jury, in the office of Mr. Leslie W. Miller, one of the three members of this Association on the Jury, with a view to a selection of the four competitors to be invited to enter the second competition.

Fairmount Park Art Association.

Although it appeared that no previous notice of a meeting on that day had been given to any of the members of the Bankers' Association or of this Association on the Jury of Award, and only four out of the ten members of the Jury were present, the President and the Secretary of the Commission undertook to make an award on behalf of the Jury, and resolved to invite four of those who had submitted designs to enter a second competition, in which they were to submit models on or before April 1, 1915, for which each competitor was to be paid the sum of $500. Mr. McFadden, President of the Bankers' Association, and Mr. Miller, Secretary of the Art Association, protested against this action as being entirely unwarranted in the circumstances and declined to sign any report to the Commission of such an award.

At a meeting of your Board on December 11, 1914, this action of your Secretary was ratified and approved and a copy of his report and information of the action of the Board thereon was directed to be furnished to all the members of the Jury of Award.

It is a matter of great regret to your Board that a project of such historic importance and artistic possibilities should be jeopardized by such unfortunate treatment in its initial stages.

ERICSSON MEMORIAL

AND

FAIRMOUNT WATERFRONT IMPROVEMENT.

Further study of the subject of a proper location for the Ericsson Memorial, to which reference was made in the last report, led your Board to the conclusion, that to a thoroughly satisfactory solution of the problems presented it was essential that the memorial should form part of some comprehensive scheme of waterfront development, within the limits of Fairmount Park, and the opportunities offered by the old Waterworks at Fairmount, very naturally suggested themselves. The works are no longer used for their original purpose, but the place is very attractive, not only by reason of the beauty of the locality, the natural charms of which are greatly enhanced by the quiet dignity of the existing buildings, which are now occupied by the Fairmount Park Art Association.

Aquarium, but also because of the fact that it is, already, the most highly developed and most frequented recreational center in the city.

Your Board was so much impressed with the opportunities for civic embellishment on a monumental scale which the improvement of this locality offered, that it commissioned the distinguished architect, Prof. Paul P. Cret, to prepare a design for the development of the entire basin from the boat-houses to Spring Garden Street, of which a spacious harbor for pleasure boats, a pharos above the dam and an adequate treatment of the forebay and adjoining grounds should be features, and for the embellishment of which, in addition to Rush's beautiful "Spirit of the Schuylkill," which is already there, but which is sadly in need of a worthier setting, the Ericsson Monument would be available, as well as the exquisite fountain, "The Duck Girl," which has just been acquired by the Association.

Prof. Cret, whose excellent work as a member of the group of architects employed by the Association to prepare the design for the Fairmount Parkway, which was finally adopted by the city in 1909, is well known, accepted the commission and was proceeding with all his accustomed enthusiasm to the execution of a project, which promised so much, when the war, now raging with such unexampled fury, broke out in Europe last summer, and, like the high-minded patriot which he is, he answered the call of his country and joined the colors, under which he is now fighting as a private in the ranks of the French Army.

THE DUCK GIRL.

At the last exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, there was exhibited a bronze fountain called "The Duck Girl," by Paulanship, a young sculptor who had recently returned to America after several years residence in Rome, where he had for three years held a fellowship in the American Academy.

It was the principal member of a group of works, which at once attracted attention as quite the most distinguished feature of an imposing exhibition, and was in itself a creation of such exquisite grace and beauty and so suitable for any such scheme as that for the embellishment of Fairmount which was at that moment under consideration, that your Board at once purchased it. Pending its permanent erection in one of the parks, the officials of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts have generously given permission for it to remain on exhibition in their galleries, where it is effectively set up and where it will remain for the present.

THE PARKWAYS.

Very gratifying progress has been made with the Fairmount Parkway. The ground from Logan Square to Twenty-second Street has at last all been acquired by the city, an item of $1,000,000 for the Parkway and another of $800,000 for the Art Museum were included in the loan which was authorized by the people at the last election, and the contract for the actual building of these three blocks of the Parkway, according to the plans of this Association, will probably have been made before this report goes to press.

That magnificent improvement, the Northeast Boulevard, is practically finished as far as Rhawn Street, and work on the Southern Boulevard, which, with the completion of League Island Park, of which it is really a part, will constitute an equally imposing addition to the lower part of the city, is well advanced.

With the removal of the existing railroads from the whole region traversed by this monumental parkway, and the corresponding development of the belt line which will handle the entire traffic between the Schuylkill and the Delaware Water-front, an opportunity will be afforded for an application of that newest of arts, city planning, on a scale, and with possibilities, esthetic as well as economic, which, if made the most of, as we trust they will be, will produce a result which will compare favorably with similar work undertaken by any American municipality.

A radical revision and extension, on a comprehensive scale, of the street system of the city is being promoted with energy and ability by the Bureau of Surveys along lines whose importance was so well emphasized by the epoch-making first report of the Transit Commissioner, which was alluded to last year, and much excellent work, in designing and furthering improvements of this kind, not only in South Philadelphia, but in the central portions of the city, where congestion is already becoming a serious matter, has been done by the different departments of the City Government on whose co-operation all progress in the movement depends.

RITTENHOUSE CIRCLE

It is a source of much satisfaction to your Board to report that a movement to erect a memorial to David Rittenhouse in every way worthy of this distinguished man, conceived on lines which this Association can cordially approve, and in the erection of which it will be glad to co-operate, is well under way.

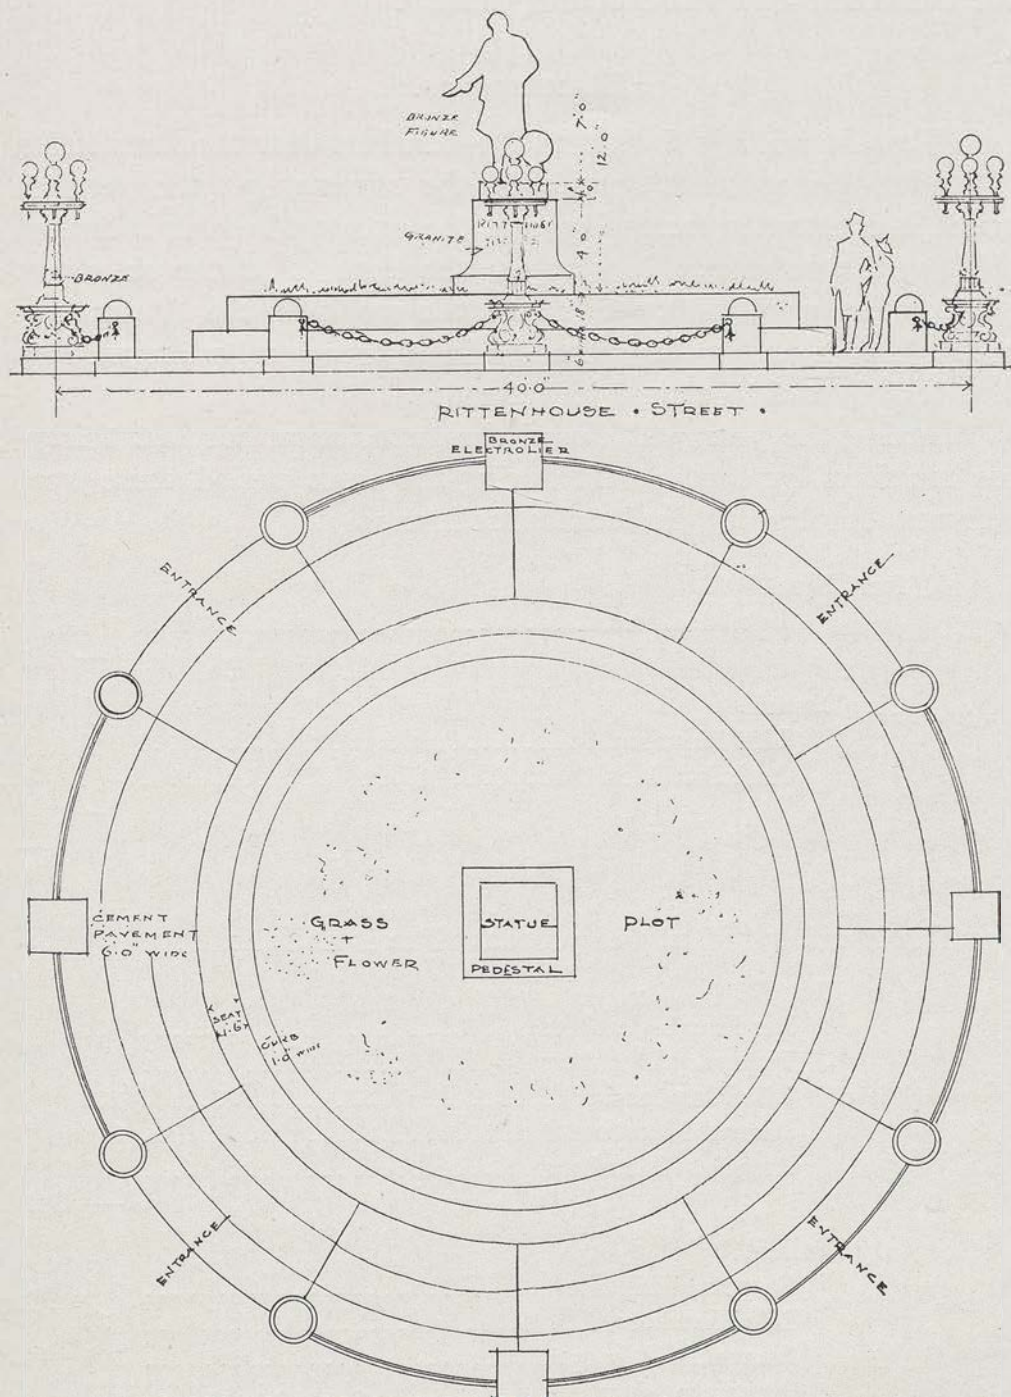

Plans for widening Rittenhouse Street, as it approaches Fairmount Park at the point where it crosses Wissahickon Avenue, have been completed and a spacious circle, more than an acre in extent, at the intersection of these two streets, has been provided. The land for two of the quadrants of this circle has been presented to the city by the Misses Rittenhouse, in whose possession the property remained, another quadrant is owned by the city, being within the boundary of the Park, and the remaining portion has been acquired by condemnation proceedings, the ordinance to authorize which, was signed by the Mayor on December 9, 1914.

The plans for the proposed improvement contemplate a safety-zone fifty feet in diameter, with a statue of Rittenhouse in the center, and when carried out will accomplish the three-fold purpose of:

1. Abolishing a dangerous intersection at Wissahickon Avenue and Rittenhouse Street.
2. Substituting one of the most imposing entrances to Fairmount Park for what is now the ugliest.
3. Worthily perpetuating the memory of David Rittenhouse, the scientist of whom, with the exception of Benjamin Franklin, Pennsylvania is most proud.

An additional sentimental interest will be attached to the improvement from the fact that the memorial will be erected on land which was part of the farm on which Rittenhouse was born, the old homestead still standing nearby.

MEMBERSHIP.

Your Board begs to remind the members that the Association is rendering important service to the community, the need of which is constantly increasing, and the extent of which is limited only by its resources. It hopes, therefore, that the members will lose no opportunity to make the work of the Association better known and to do what lies in their power to increase its membership and to extend its influence.

During the year just closed the Association has lost thirty-one members by death; and during the same period there were four new enrolments, in detail as follows:

OBITUARY.

Two members of the Board have died during the year, and the wise counsel and devoted service of Charles E. Dana, First Vice-President, and William W. Justice, Treasurer, while they are gratefully remembered, are grievously missed.

At a special meeting held June 8, 1914, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Fairmount Park Art Association desires to record in this place its profound sorrow at the death of

and its sincere appreciation of the nature and extent of the devoted service which he rendered to this Association, of whose ideals he was, from the first, a consistent and cordial supporter, and a fair share of the duties and responsibilities of whose administration he faithfully and efficiently discharged for many years.

As a member of the Association since its organization in 1871; of this Board since 1890; and as its Treasurer since 1909, Mr. Justice displayed, in upholding its aims and promoting its efficiency, the same qualities that characterized his discharge of all the duties of citizenship and made his name a synonym for all that is noblest and best in the life of the city that he loved so well.

The minute adopted on the death of Mr. Dana was printed in the pamphlet containing the last report, although his death occurred after the report itself was submitted.

For the unexpired terms of Mr. Dana and Mr. Justice, your Board elected Mr. George W. Elkins and Mr. George W. Norris respectively.

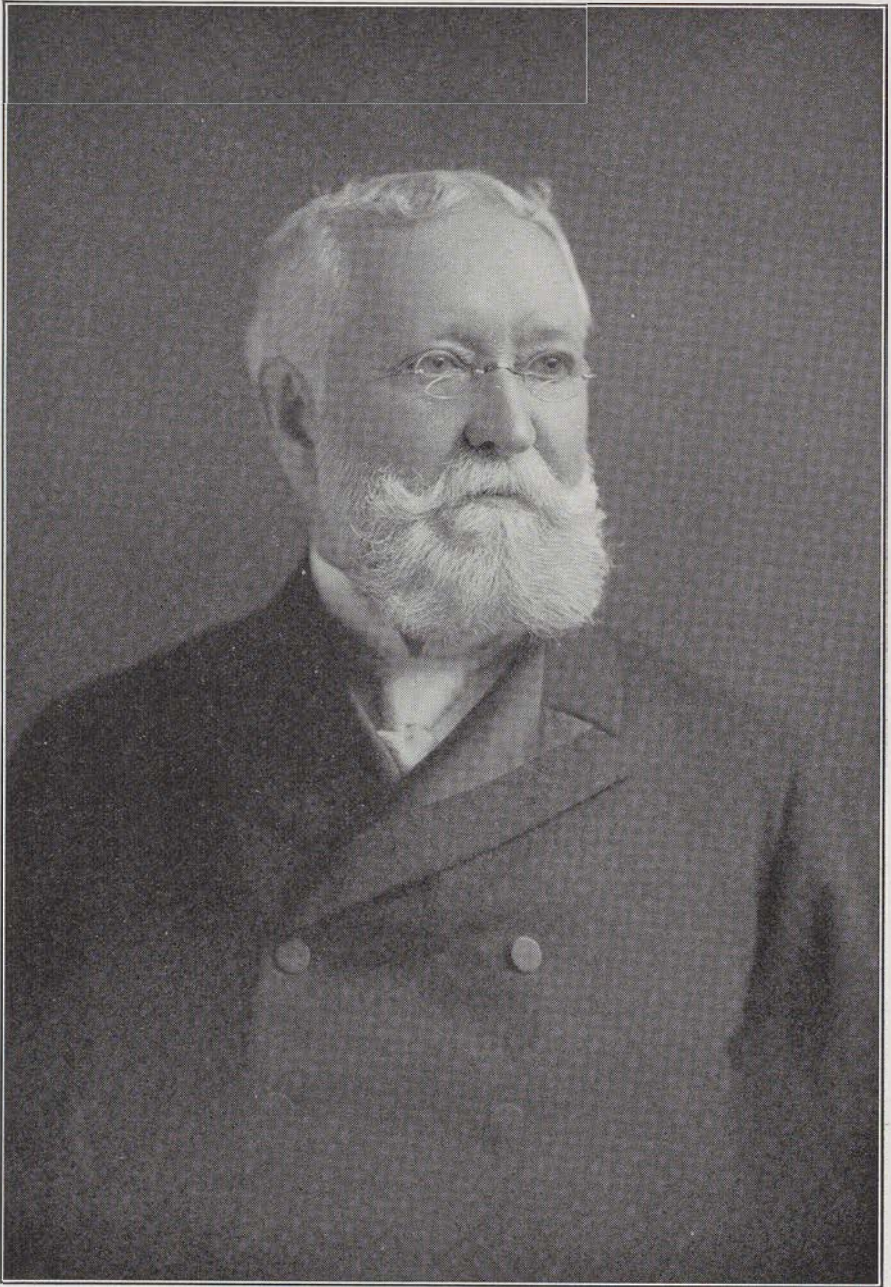

ELECTION.

It is your duty to elect six trustees to serve for three years, and until their successors shall be chosen, in place of those whose term has expired.

Respectfully submitted,

E. T. STOTESBURY,
President.

LESLIE W. MILLER,
Secretary.

WILLIAM W. JUSTICE.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION

The Forty-third Annual Meeting of the Fairmount Park Art Association was held at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, on Thursday, January 21, 1915, at twelve o'clock noon. About fifty members were present.

In the absence of the President, Vice-President Morris occupied the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting, copies of which had been sent to all members, were, on motion, approved, and the reading dispensed with.

The Forty-third Annual Report of the Board of Trustees was presented and read. On motion of Prof. William A. Mason, duly seconded, the report was accepted and referred to the incoming Board, and the Secretary was instructed to have the usual number of copies printed and distributed.

An abstract of the Treasurer's Report, which is printed in full in this report, was also presented and read.

The election of six trustees for the ensuing term of three years and until their successors shall be chosen, being next in order, the following ticket was nominated by Col. Thomas S. Harrison and duly seconded. There being no further nominations, the Secretary was, on motion duly seconded, instructed to cast a single ballot for the ticket as nominated. This was done and the gentlemen were declared elected.

For the term ending in 1917:

GEORGE W. ELKINS,
A. G. HETHERINGTON,
JOHN T. MORRIS,

GEORGE W. NORRIS,
JOHN W. PEPPER,
E. BURGESS WARREN.

Mr. Charles M. Burns called attention to the desirability of collecting information regarding the influence of climate on the materials used in monumental memorials with a view to the preservation of existing memorials and the guidance of the Association in erecting new ones. The subject was discussed at some length by several members and on motion of Mr. Charles L. Borie, seconded by Mr. Albert Kelsey, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees be requested to make a careful study of the material used for the monuments heretofore erected under the auspices of the Association and their present condition, with a view to the adoption of standard specifications for the future, and to report at the next Annual Meeting of the Association.

Mr. Crawford spoke regarding the progress of the City Planning movement throughout the country in which this Association is universally regarded as the leader. Excellent work had been done in Newark, Chicago, Denver, Minneapolis, Cleveland and several other cities in the way of establishing civic centers, wider avenues, playgrounds, improved transit facilities, etc. The question of regulating the height of buildings and proportioning this to the size of the lot, as well as safeguarding the character of particular districts, industrial, residential and other, and the right of excess condemnation which was so vital to the success of the movement, were touched upon.

Prof. William A. Mason thanked the Association for the gift of photographs for public schools, recently made and which constituted a valuable addition to their equipment, which was much appreciated by pupils and teachers alike.

The meeting was then adjourned.

LESLIE W. MILLER,
Secretary.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP (AND CERTIFICATE).....	FIFTY DOLLARS
*PERPETUAL MEMBERSHIP.....	FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Annual members of two or more years may change to Life Membership upon payment of Forty Dollars.

As the Association welcomes gifts and bequests of securities, money and real estate, it is hoped that all who desire to perpetuate the work of the Association will, in disposing of their property, include the Fairmount Park Art Association among their beneficiaries.

Under the laws of Pennsylvania, which provide that the courts are authorized to enter a decree at any time extending and defining the amount of property which the Association shall be permitted to hold, it is evident that the restriction in the original charter limiting the amount of real estate which it may legally hold is practically removed.

Perpetual memberships are especially valued as legacies.

* May be in one's own name or "In Memoriam."

Citizens desiring to contribute to the adornment of the Park or City are invited to do so through the agency of this Association, in order that such undertakings may not only benefit by its experience and oversight, but also that proper and permanent record of them may be made in its published Reports.
